

Taltree
arboretum & gardens®

Woodland Restoration Intern Position Description

Summary of position: The woodland restoration intern will gain hands on experience in the basic practices of woodland restoration including: GPS, tree identification and inventorying, invasive plant identification and removal. The intern will be expected to present their findings and write an article for our internal newsletter.

Reports To: Grounds Manager

Supervises: Volunteers

Contacts: Staff, volunteers, public

Essential Responsibilities: Cataloging oak trees, tree hazard assessment, invasive removal and planning, pest scouting, tree pruning, assisting grounds crew

Education: Currently pursuing a degree in Forestry and Natural Resources or Horticulture

Experience: Preference will be given to those who have already completed two years of study.

Licensure: Must have and maintain a valid driver's license

Knowledge/Skills/Abilities:

Knowledge of some hand tools and good communication skills.

Experience gained:

- Tree identification
- Tree maintenance
- Invasive identification and removal
- Cataloging

How to apply: Send resume, cover letter, and letter of recommendation from your internship advisor to humanresources@taltree.org. Include the position that you are applying for in the subject line. Applications without necessary information will not be considered.